-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Detailed Action

Response to Amendment

Claims 1-12, 14-30, 32-48, and 50-54 are pending. This action is in response to the remarks received July 17, 2006.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-12, 14-30, 32-48, and 50-54 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-12, 14-30, 32-48, and 50-54 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gershman et al. (US 6,401,085) in view of Eggleston (US 6,061,660).

Re claims 1, 12, 16, 19, 30, 34, 37, 48, and 52, Gershman teaches a method for providing... web-based offers and receiving corresponding responses thereto (col. 38, line 50 to col. 39, line 25: Gershman teaches solicitations when he discloses web sites that effectively attract customers in col. 39, line 14) comprising:

...a set of users sharing pre-selected characteristics... (col. 37, line 55 to col. 38, line 50);

receiving a request to access the web site... (figs. 10a-10b and 14-15);

providing, via the accessed web site, an offer to at least one of the users (col. 40, lines 4-67: Gershman matches the product to the code); and receiving, via the accessed web site, a response to the offer from at least one of the users (col. 40, line 55 to col. 41, line 50; Gershman discloses promotional products according to the user's profile).

However, Gershman does not explicitly teach solicitations, url, and offer code. On the other hand, Eggleston discloses solicitations, url, and offer code in relation to incentive programs and award fulfillment (col. 13, line 43 to col. 14, line 5 (i.e. solicitations); col. 14, lines 6-19, col. 15, lines 26-59; fig. 1 (i.e. url); col. 1, line 63 to col. 2, line 8 (i.e. offering code)). He discloses solicitations when he discloses incentive programs such as including advertising or product logos as part of the graphical object viewed by the consumer when playing an incentive program. As for the url, Eggleston teaches a sponsor initiates participation through the sponsor computer by accessing a web browser and entering the URL of the sponsor site. In addition, Eggleston teaches offer code when he discloses offer promotions. Thus, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to include solicitations, url, and offer code in relation to incentive programs in an internet system to promote products as discloses in Eggleston.

Re claims 2, 20, and 38, Gershman teaches offer code incorporated in the solicitation is entered by the user at the web site (figs. 1a, 9 (element 900, 910, and 950), and 25).

Re claims 3, 21, and 39, Gershman teaches solicitation is sent through electronic means (figs. 1a, 10a, 17, and 24). Gershman discloses solicitation of products through web site, which is an electronic means.

Re claims 4, 22, and 40, Gershman teaches receiving a request further includes providing a customer identification number and using the customer identification number to verify a user (col. 41, line 51 to col. 42, line 3). Gershman discloses a username and a password to identify a user.

Re claims 5, 23, and 41, Gershman teaches offer provides for adjusting existing customer account terms (col. 44, lines 49-65). Gershman permits customers to customize their accounts thus he permits a customer to adjust existing customer account terms.

Re claims 6, 8, 24, and 42, Gershman teaches offer includes terms for new customers (col. 41, lines 23-50; col. 43, lines 45-65).

Re claims 7, 25-26, and 43-44, Gershman teaches adjusting a customer's account terms based on the response (col. 47, lines 32-65; figs. 19, 23, and 25).

Re claims 9, 27, and 45, Gershman teaches saving a user's access history (col. 11, lines 49-62; col. 40, lines 9-16; col. 47, lines 43-52).

Re claims 10, 28, and 46, Gershman teaches analyzing the user's access history and modifying the offer based on the analysis (col. 12, lines 46-59; col. 40, lines 9-16).

Re claims 11, 29, and 47, Gershman teaches a customer's account is automatically updated based on the response (col. 48, lines 15-32).

Re claims 14, 17, 32, 35, 50, and 53, Gershman teaches set of offers relate to at least one of cellular telephone products and services (col. 38, lines 65-67; figs. 9 and 16).

Gershman discloses any type of products and services thus a cellular telephone is a type of product.

Re claims 15, 18, 33, 36, 51, and 54, Gershman teaches set of offers relate to financial services (col. 38, lines 57-62). Gershman discloses financial planning.
